product guidance

Clash Warning:

If you are choosing seating that includes arms or a sloping back, please take care when pushing these under counter tops, breakfast bars or tables as they may clash and over time cause damage and/or excessive wear. In particular this will be very prevalent with stone counter tops as these will tend to have a more textured underside.

Colour Variation:

With natural wood finishes and some painted finishes, there will be a standard tolerance of slight difference between samples and actual finishes that will be deemed acceptable. If buying an additional piece to match with a previously purchased piece this variation may be more significant due to batch differences and external factors such as effect by UV.

Pairs:

Within our AFFINITY ELEMENTAL collection, many of the chairs are marked 'Can Only Be Bought In Pairs'. Please bear this in mind when calculating cost, as the prices listed in the table are for an individual item.
